Partnering with schools, families and the community

Overview of Elev8 Baltimore
Elev8 Baltimore partners with schools, families and the community to make sure that every child is ready to succeed in school and in life.
• We provide coordinated services and opportunities that every child needs and deserves.

• We engage families and students so that they can be effective advocates for themselves and their communities.

• We work to change the policies and practices of schools, government agencies, community organizations and others to strengthen their focus on student success.
