Making Baltimore a more creative and vibrant city.
Public Art Commission

- Oversees % for Art Ordinance

- 12 active projects,

- Maintains database of over 700 public artworks in Baltimore City

- Manages pool of over 400 qualified Public Artists
Crosswalk Project
Baltimore Mural Program

• More than 200 murals

• Sites throughout the city
Warner Street Mural

Photo credit: David Muse
Love Letter to Baltimore

Photo credit: Matthew Kuborn
Neighborhood Events

• Small grants to local community organizations for events.

• Over 6,000 people across 23 city zip codes participated!
Transformative Art Project

- Using art to create neighborhood identity and raise the positive visibility of a community
- Permanently reinventing public spaces with non-profit community groups working in partnership with professional artists
- Awards of up to $30,000
PNC Transformative Art Prize
PNC Transformative Art Prize
PNC Transformative Art Prize
Creative Baltimore Fund/Mayor’s Artists Awards
School 33 Art Center

Bright StARTs

Arts education year-round for underserved children in grades K-12 out-of-school - 2,500 students participate annually.
Bright StARTS

Partnerships with Baltimore Family League, City Schools & others
Quality of Life
A Better Baltimore